#ishitejitemple

Shikoku Henro is a pilgrimage of 88 temples in the Shikoku region. The 51st temple on this route is Ishite-ji, which attracts many visitors as it has many structures worth seeing, including the Niomon gate, a National Treasure, and the three-story pagoda, an Important Cultural Property. The Mantra cave located behind the main hall is also popular.

Dōgo Time Exploration "Dōgo Toki (time) meguri"

Dōgo Onsen Honkan sounds the Toki Daiko ("time drum") to announce the time three times each day. Dōgo Time Exploration offers recommendations for walks around town based on the theme of "time," which may indicate the different timeframes during which various types of atmospheres can be experienced, the changing of the seasons, or cultural customs passed down over times past.

1 Dōgo Onsen Station & Botchan Train
道後温泉駅・坊っちゃん列車

The western-style station is a restoration of the original built in 1911. There is nostalgia in every detail. The Botchan train is modeled after a steam locomotive that once ran across the Matsuyama plain. Since the train is stationed here during the night, morning is the best time to take photos of it.

2 Dōgo-kōen Park
道後公園

A great place in the downtown area for going on a nature-lovers' walk. From the park's north end across to the central area is a well-maintained garden where seasonal flowers can be enjoyed. Go up a hill and you will arrive at an observation deck. Recommended for morning walks and running.

#tsubakinoyu

A hot spring bathhouse favored by the locals. The building was reconstructed in 1984 and is styled after a kura-yashiki warehouse.

#asukanoyu

Opened in 2017. The motif in the men's bathing room is of Mt. Ishizuchi, while that in the women's is of Seto Inland Sea.
